Our Mission

Maine Sport Outfitters is committed to providing quality products, exceptional service and dynamic programs that inspire a lifelong passion for the outdoors through experience, education and outreach.

Meet our Director

Say hello to Tim Barker, our Outdoor Programs Director. Tim is excited to be offering a wide variety of programming for the local community, seasonal visitors, youth, and outdoor professionals. He has worked in various settings including expedition-based wilderness therapy, back-country ski touring, and maritime education. He is a Registered Maine Recreation & Sea Kayak Guide, Licensed Captain, and Wilderness First Responder. Tim serves on the Board of the Midcoast Outdoor Leadership Initiative and the Advisory Committee for Colorado College's Ritt Kellogg Memorial Fund. He happily resides in Belfast, Maine with his wife, son, and the occasional farm animal.

Sea Kayak Day Tours

"Maine Sport is an excellent outfitter. The guides on the kayak tour were knowledgeable and friendly. Also rented a bike from them; they had detailed maps and made sure the bike fit correctly."

- Jeffrey from McKinney, TX

"We had a FABULOUS experience! We received maps and ideas of where to paddle, the sales person was very pleasant and helpful, and returning the kayaks was easy. I'd use them again in a second!"

- Susan from Sudbury, MA

"Eight women and two guides conquered Katahdin in mid August, in difficult weather. The Guides and Maine Sport organized an amazing three day, full service trip. The knowledge of the guides made the experience both fun and safe, despite weather challenges. I would definitely recommend this trip to others."

-Kathy from Mason, OH

"We did the St. George river tour with our two kids, 5 and 8. Was perfect for them. Our guide was fabulous! Everyone we encountered at Maine Sport Outfitters was professional, accommodating, and friendly. Highly recommend."
